The Mighty Saints of Soul

From left to right: Randy Hignite, Danny Garner, Jim Heidenreich and Bob Hale. Formerly The Avengers during the late 1960s, which eventually became The Band of Oz in 1970, one of the most successful groups in the Southeast. Since then, we have collaborated with numerous other bands and musicians, including The Avengers, The Embers, Lighthouse, and Sheryl Rouse. We played as Jackie Gore and The All Starz during the mid-2000s. See Program Book for more.
